Case - Timothy N. Pfeiffer,
Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.,
Operative - 312.

312 / surveillance

February 24, 1923. Continuing on the above matter, Operative proceeded to the Hudson Terminal, and there boarded a train for New Brunswick, N. J.

Upon arrival at New Brunswick, N.J., Operative proceeded to and located in the vicinity of the home of the Subject, and the Lord Sterling School.

At the time Operative arrived in the above mentioned vicinity, he observed the Subject sitting inside of the Schoolhouse door at the main entrance, reading what appeared to be a newspaper.

At about 5 p.m. the Subject left the school building and after having locked the door, proceeded to and entered his home at #49 Carman St., New Brunswick, N.J.

At about 7.10 p.m. the Subject came from his home, proceeded to George St., and along George St. to a butcher shop located at #355 George St., where he entered.

After remaining in the above mentioned butcher shop a short time, the Subject came out and entered an A. & P. Grocery Store located at #359 George Street, New Brunswick, N.J.

In a short time the Subject came from the above mentioned grocery store, proceeded to his home, where he entered at 8.30 p.m.

Operative continued surveillance of the building at #49 Carman St., New Brunswick, N.J., until 9.45 p.m., and then proceeded to the railroad station, boarded a train for New York City, and discontinued.

The Subject while out shopping was not observed by Operative to enter in conversation with anyone.

There were no other activities in connection with the Subject, other than as noted above.
